

Georgetown County – Coastal Waccamaw Stormwater Education Consortium Workshop
January 09, 2006
10 am – 12 pm

Draft Agenda

Introduction: The Importance of Today's Workshop and Its Goal (5 minutes - Who?)

Part I: Overview of NPDES Phase II Program and Georgetown's Progress (25 minutes – Susan)

- Basics of Phase II Stormwater Program for Small MS-4s
 - Six minimum measures
 - Consequences of noncompliance
 - Current legal status
- Georgetown County's Progress
- Monitoring

Part II: Mapping Activity and Review of Watershed and Nonpoint Source Pollution Concepts (25 minutes – Karen)

- Hands-on mapping activity
 - Watershed concept
 - Identify various land uses and their relation to causes of nonpoint source pollution
- Hydrological cycle – surface and groundwater
- Overview of various land uses in the county
- Role of impervious cover
 - Relationship between imperviousness and water quality impairments
- Types of pollutants and the problems they cause

Part III: Role of Planning Process (25 minutes – Jeff)

- Importance of buffers

Part IV: Specific BMPs (25 minutes – Dan)

- Georgetown specific
- Quasi-technical
- Focus on eastern part of county

Part V: What Next? (15 minutes – Susan)

- Prioritize activities
- Workshop Evaluation - Jeff